concept.

This plan is also known as cash order plan. Actually this is not an multi level marketing concept. The basic concept is to send gift to one member and receive multiple gift from many other members. So each member will be benefited with multiple gift receipts from other members. Members will deposit or gift directly to other members as the system shows. The company can charge an amount for the managerial expenses and for the registration charges. This plan can be of many levels.

Three main concepts of a perfect MLM Gift plan

Giving

This is the first concept of a perfect existing gift plan. Providing something of worth, without cleverness or objectives, is the most important factor. It is a method for making valuable energy that goes into your marketing speciality. That energy will come back to you as a result of your non self centered act

Share

Sharing is another non self centered act. For many years, the demonstration of discussing what you have with other people who may or may not be less fortunate than you has been a valuable act.

Receiving

Receiving is an lengthy anticipated event. However it should be documented and created well to all associates. Moreover it is testing and improper about the surety of the sum of amount that you will get.

Advantages of MLM Gift Plan over other plans

- 1) The ability of deciding how to receive your money daily, weekly, monthly or longer
- 2) The autonomy over your money through Paypal, AlertPay, or Solid TrustPay
